

MARINATING

DaBaby

Yeah
Look

How much do you love me, baby? Tell me 'cause I gotta know
Is your love gon' change when I'm away 'cause bae, I gotta go
Would you fuck with me if I wasn't up and I was down and broke?
'Cause I done been through shit that fucked me up and I been tryna cope
It's gon' take some time to fix my anger, I'm not proud, I know
Might take it out on you 'cause you my lady, that's just how it go
But when temptation hit, I'm gon' be patient, ain't gon' find a ho
Just make sure that you got it marinatin', bet not find the door

Been stressed out, shit been hard to carry lately, I been tryna grow
It's gon' be hard, you tryna marry Baby, you gon' ride or no?
I usually do the dash to get the cash, but I been grindin' slow
I'm tryna take my time this time around, it's somethin' you gotta know
I'm tryna keep myself from nuttin' fast, the way you ride it slow
I'm grippin' on yo' waist and on yo' ass, I got your mind controlled
You put both of your legs up on my shoulders, I'm like, "Damn bae, I can't hold it"
Got me hypnotized, you know it, grab yo' hips, I got you folded
Like a motherfuckin' flip phone in the '90s
My kryptonite, I'm Superman, my bitch right here beside me
And I know you don't like when I say my bitch
But I don't mean no disrespect, bae, I just talk like that, it's lit, I got one question
Tell me

How much do you love me, baby? Tell me 'cause I gotta know (Yeah)
Is your love gon' change when I'm away 'cause bae, I gotta go (Gotta go)
Would you fuck with me if I wasn't up and I was down and broke? (Down and broke)
'Cause I done been through shit that fucked me up and I been tryna cope
It's gon' take some time to fix my anger, I'm not proud, I know
Might take it out on you 'cause you my lady, that's just how it go
But when temptation hit, I'm gon' be patient, ain't gon' find a ho
Just make sure that you got it marinatin', bet not find the door

Let it marinate for me
I love that video that you just sent me, I can't wait to see
That ass like that in person while you twerkin', we gon' make a scene
Hit that fuckin' spot and have you squirtin', I'ma make you scream
Ready to get home and get that cookie, I'ma make you cream
Make you holla out in your falsetto, I'ma make you sing
I been tryin' out like I'ma a rookie, tryna make your team
What you thinkin' 'bout? 'Cause I'm a genie, I can make your dreams reality
I know I got aggressive and you gentle, so you mad at me
But somehow always strive to see the good and not the bad in me
I'm tryna be the reason that you out here livin' happily
And open up your back and fill it up with fuckin' batteries
Now tell me, baby

How much do you love me, baby? Tell me 'cause I gotta know (Yeah)
Is your love gon' change when I'm away 'cause bae, I gotta go (I gotta go)
Would you fuck with me if I wasn't up and I was down and broke? (Uh)
'Cause I done been through shit that fucked me up and I been tryna cope (Listen)

It's gon' take some time to fix my anger, I'm not proud, I know (Listen)
Might take it out on you 'cause you my lady, that's just how it go
But when temptation hit, I'm gon' be patient, ain't gon' find a ho
Just make sure that you got it marinatin', bet not find the door

And you bet not find a motherfuckin' door
You better stay your ass right here at home and hold it down
Like I know you know how to hold it down
You ain't goin' nowhere
Yeah

How much do you love me, baby? Tell me 'cause I gotta know
Is your love gon' change when I'm away 'cause bae, I gotta go
Would you fuck with me if I wasn't up and I was down and broke?
'Cause I done been through shit that fucked me up and I been tryna cope
It's gon' take some time to fix my anger, I'm not proud, I know
Might take it out on you 'cause you my lady, that's just how it go
But when temptation hit, I'm gon' be patient, ain't gon' find a ho
Just make sure that you got it marinatin', bet not find the door
