

WHERE WOULD I BE

DaBaby

Hmm, hmm

Where would I be without my scales and my pistols? (Where would I be?)

Where would I be if I was a scary-ass nigga? (Where would I be?)

Where would I be if my family grew up richer? (Grew up richer)

Where would I be if I hesitate to pull the trigger? (Mm)

I guess I'll never know

I told my youngin' when he up that gun, he better blow (Yup)

I done shot a couple niggas, keep one up, I never lost

Still thankin' God he never let them crackers send me up that road

He let me stand on all that business

Where the fuck I be if I ain't up and blam on all them niggas?

Where the fuck I be if I ain't put them bags on all them runners?

That my mama used to get me

Know my palms'll get to itchin', kept some pounds and kept a pistol

I ain't changin' up my fit 'til every bag in here get missing

I'm grindin', I ain't tryna wash my ass and I been sweatin'

I had bags from California back in 2011

Used to mix the meal with gas and give my crew all of the extras, nigga

Where would I be without my scales and my pistols? (Where would I be?)

Where would I be if I was a scary-ass nigga? (Where would I be?)

Where would I be if my family grew up richer? (Grew up richer)

Where would I be if I hesitate to pull the trigger? (Mm)

I can say it ain't about the quickest, it's about who livin'

See, I don't mind doin' time in prison before I let you kill me

The last nigga got away, but he paralyzed, I tapped his biscuit (He rolled away)

I'm thankin' God that I ain't still out here robbin' niggas (Huh)

I been by myself, I don't like to get in cars with niggas (I don't trust shit)

'Cause they ain't never pitch him in the frame, I was in a darker picture

Sometimes, might be in my lil' mood, so I don't talk to niggas

See, I'll pistol whip you with this thang before I argue with ya

I'm just tryna put you on some game 'cause you not a killer

You ain't got no cash money, then you ain't got no bargain tick ets
And if you out here livin' like a cowboy, you not a father figu re
See, I'm gon' spend my money on my kids before a broad can get it (You should've saved yourself)

Where would I be without my scales and my pistols?
Where would I be if I was a scary-ass nigga? (Where would I be?)
Where would I be if my family grew up richer? (Grew up richer)
Where would I be if I hesitate to pull the trigger?
