

Again

Dabin

In my dreams
I see you all alone again
Through the seams
I wish I could've gone where you had gone

Wait just a minute
Am I awake or am I asleep?
Is it fate that I'm seeing, that's keeping you away from me?

How do I know if I'm sober still?
How can I tell if the world I see is real?
Into the dawn with you, I'd do it again, no
With you, I'd do it again

Till the end
I know this isn't all that we could be
And I agree
Your texts and secret calls will be the end of me

So wait just a minute
Am I awake or am I asleep?
Is it fate that I'm seeing, that's keeping you away from me? No

How do I know if I'm sober still?
How can I tell if the world I see is real?
Into the dawn with you, I'd do it again
With you, I'd do it again

With you I'd do it again
With you I'd do it again
With you I'd do it again
With you I'd do it again
