

Deepest Water

Dabin

Listen to me
I know you're tryna hold it steady
Harder to breathe
Harder when the world is heavy

With the sun in your eyes and the salt in your wounds
And when nobody feels it, you know that I do
In the dark of the night, when it's all out of view
With the end of the line, it's me and you

Even through rain or fire
Through all the highs and the lows
Out in the deepest waters
I'll be your anchor to hold
I'll never let you go, oh, oh
I'll never let you go, oh
Even through rain or fire
Promise I'll carry your heart

I'll never let you go, oh, oh
I'll never let you go, oh
Go, oh, oh
Promise I'll carry your heart
I'll never let you go, oh, oh
I'll never let you go, oh
Even through rain or fire
Promise I'll carry your heart

Weight of the sky
Somehow you can feel the pressure
You try and you try
Finding water in the desert

With the sun in your eyes and the salt in your wounds
And when nobody feels it, you know that I do
In the dark of the night, when it's all out of view
With the end of the line, it's me and you

Even through rain or fire
Through all the highs and the lows
Out in the deepest waters
I'll be your anchor to hold
I'll never let you go, oh, oh
I'll never let you go, oh
Even through rain or fire
Promise I'll carry your heart

I'll never let you
Promise I'll carry your heart
I'll never let you go, oh, oh
I'll never let you go, oh
Even through rain or fire
Promise I'll carry your heart
