

I'll still enchant you, capture your soul
A slave to my love, bring me your all
Irresistible, my sorrow and my soul
Crumbles you down and hunts you to ground
(Put us in the war)
And haunts you to ground
Bring me your all

Put us in the war
Put us in the war
Put us in the war

Let chaos arise, a sword through your heart
My lips of peace whisper and cage your chivalry
Put us in the war, a massacre of love
It won't be won, with both sides in shards

So have a dance with demons
I'll give you a kiss
Turn you into a believer
I know that I'll win
I know that love wins
I know that, know that love wins, oh woah

I'll still enchant you, and all you endure
I'm a home of your heart, feeding you a lure
Irresistible, my sorrow and my soul
Crumbles you down

Put us in the war
Bring me your all
Bring me the war
