

Not Enough

Dabin

You push, and you pull, and you turned it
On its head so I won't get out
And kissing just ends up in cursing
Armageddon till you calm down

And if I could, I would tell me that in two years
I'd be happy, finally
And it's numbing, but the ending is coming

'Cause I don't wanna feel like I did before
Thinking it was love, when you're messing up
I don't wanna feel like I did before
Holding on to us, when I ain't enough

And I think of you sometimes
But, hey, that's just being human
Yeah, I don't wanna feel like I did before
Not, not enough
Not, not enough
For you

Like I did before
Ending is coming
But, hey, that's just being
Like I did before
Ending is coming
Not, not enough
Not, not enough

I still find your crumbs on my chest
Like an infinite supply of trauma, oh
But, I heard you're with somebody else now
Maybe she could be your karma

And if I could, I would tell her
In just two words "It's over, over"
And it's numbing, but the ending is coming

'Cause I don't wanna feel like I did before
Thinking it was love, when you're messing up
I don't wanna feel like I did before
Holding on to us, when I ain't enough

And I think of you sometimes
But, hey, that's just being human
Yeah, I don't wanna feel like I did before
Not, not enough
Not, not enough
For you

(One, two, three, four)

And I think of you sometimes
But, hey, that's just being human
Yeah, I don't wanna feel like I did before
Not, not enough
Not, not enough

For you

Like I did before (for you)
But, hey, that's just being

And I think of you sometimes
But, hey, that's just being human
Yeah, I don't wanna feel like I did before
Not, not enough
Not, not enough
For you
