

Nothing At All

Dabin

We should start a new beginning
Before we reach another end
The middle will always hurt when you're twisting all my words
Let's try something before we're nothing at all

Graveyards of buried hatchets
Worlds apart next to me
Playing on my nerves while our story takes a turn
Let's try something before we're nothing at all

Nothing at all, all
Nothing at all, all
One can only dream that on the last page you don't leave
Let's try something before we're nothing at all

(All, all)
Nothing at all (All, all)
Nothing at all (All, all)
Let's try something before we're nothing at all

I've been fighting for my life out there
Fearing that we're finding out that life's not fair
Now I've gotta rewrite my fate
Starting with me cleaning up the mess you've made
We can make it feel like this fairy tale is real
Let's try something before we're nothing at all

Nothing at all, all
Nothing at all, all
One can only dream that on the last page you don't leave
Let's try something before we're nothing at all

Oh, nothing at all (All, all)
Oh, nothing at all (All, all)
Nothing at, nothing at all (All, all)
Nothing at all

We should start a new beginning
Before the end of you and me
