

No One

Dada

Take down the pictures take down the door
And let the dirt settle in on the floor
Cause no one lives here that matters no more
I'm just somebody to ignore
Because I'm nobody now no one
I'm nobody now no one
Hallelujah I'm no one
I'm nobody's someone no more
Found I control almost nothing
Don't have a soul cause that's something
Don't got no wishes that'd be dreamin
And dreamin's got no business with me
Now I got a friend in the space between the wind
Now I got a friend won't let me down
I have no face to make fun of
No pretty hair to be done up
No wasted time pretending something to be
I need no time to be me
