

Bad

Dagny

Set time, dinner's done in 45'
I say the things that people like
When I shouldn't
Midnight, putting on a pretty smile
Pleasing all the black ties
When I shouldn't

Someday, they will start seeing what I am
When I take the role

As the bad, oh so bad
If you mess with me
If you push the wrong buttons
I go bad, oh so bad
You just set me free
If you thought you were the only one unstoppable
You're mad

See me throw a glass across the room
And be one to set the rules, call me a woman
Don't you dare to mess with me
My bad mistaking you for being nice
At least look right into my eyes and be Responsible for what you've done to me

Someday, they will start seeing what I am
When I take the lead

As the bad, oh so bad
If you mess with me
If you push the wrong buttons
I go bad, oh so bad
You just set me free
If you thought you were the only one unstoppable
You're

I want away now, it's gone too far now
I want away now (I wish we didn't have to end up this way
If we swapped our places, what would you say?)
It's gone too far now (Coulda been good, but now it's too late)

I'll show you bad, oh so bad
If you mess with me (don't you dare)
If you push the wrong buttons
I go bad, oh so bad
You just set me free
(Oh, you should know, I can be)
Bad, oh so bad (oh so bad)
If you mess with me
If you push the wrong buttons
I go bad, oh so bad
You just set me free
If you thought you were the only one unstoppable
You're mad
