

Hate Being Alone

Dagny

Romance was just in the old films
Now I'm texting you poems
Old songs I swore that I hated
Somehow come up in my favorites

Things I knew just don't seem the same
Baby, you're the one that I blame
Look what you, look what you've gone and done

Own up, tell me you'll always show up
You know it's all your fault that
I hate being alone, I hate being alone now
Own up, tell me you'll always show up
Used to be fine before ya
Now I hate being alone, I hate being alone now, now
Now, now

Grey days, nothing could save 'em
Nowadays, I celebrate 'em
Sleepless, but who needs to sleep when
Your hands are keeping me dreamin'?

Things I knew just don't seem the same
Lose my head all over the place
Look what you, look what you've gone and done
No

Own up, tell me you'll always show up
You know it's all your fault that
I hate being alone, I hate being alone now
Own up, tell me you'll always show up
Used to be fine before ya
Now I hate being alone, I hate being alone now, now
Now, now

So own up, tell me you'll always show up
You know it's all your fault that
I hate being alone, I hate being alone now

Own up, tell me you'll always show up
You know it's all your fault that
I hate being alone, I hate being alone now
Own up, tell me you'll always show up
Used to be fine before ya
Now I hate being alone, I hate being alone now, now
Now, now

Now I hate being alone, I hate being alone now, now
Now, now
Now I hate being alone, I hate being alone now
