

half sleeping on the carpet

Daisy The Great

I know your heart
I know your mind
I know your life
I know your body
We're swimming in an icy cold river with no clothes on

I know it's dark
I know you cry
I know you try
I know you're sorry

It's moments like this that keep us suspended
So if you wanna lay your head by my head
I'll be lying on the floor

Oh, baby I remember some days
Sun rays warming my bones
Oh, baby I remember some days
Ablaze, not so alone
Now I'm half sleeping on the carpet
And I'm whispering your name
Now I'm half sleeping on the carpet
And I'm whispering your name

I want your heart
I want your mind
I want your life
I want your body
We're swimming in the icy cold river with no clothes on

And what is love?
And what am I
Now you got a bit of time

It's moments like this that keep us suspended
So if you wanna lay your head by my head
I'll be lying on the floor

Oh, baby I remember some days
Sun rays warming my bones
Oh, baby I remember some days
Ablaze, not so alone
Now I'm half sleeping on the carpet
And I'm whispering your name
Now I'm half sleeping on the carpet
And I'm whispering your name
