Daisy The Great

Have a heart, have a heart, have a heart
Sixteen six six six and I know the part
You are the river flow and we can never know
We're just a weatherman, you make the wind blow
Keep thinking 'bout every straight face yes
Wonder what your boyfriend thinks about your braces
What about them, I'm all about them
Six such straight As, cut 'em in the bathroom

So this is it then, you're here to win friend
Click click, saddle up, see you on the moon then
You're all alone friend, pick up the phone then
Ring ring, call 'em up, tell 'em 'bout the new trends

Have a heart, have a heart, have a heart
Sixteen six six six and you fell apart
We form a tarot pack and I'm aware of that
But we could fist fight drunk like the parent trap
Keep thinking 'bout every straight face yes
Wonder what your boyfriend thinks about your braces
We never blink see and you can see me
We fell asleep in the middle of the fury

So this is it then, you're here to win friend
Click click, saddle up, see you on the moon then
You're all alone friend, pick up the phone then
Ring ring, call 'em up, tell 'em 'bout the new trends
