

Seeking A New Pair Of Eyes

Daisy The Great

Seeking a new pair of eyes
Ones that see past the rocks in disguise
Dressing up as diamonds, I'm in a relationship
With validationship

Looking for a taste for practicality
My tongue is stuck on an appetite of three-
Hundred dollars a week
My fridge is starting to reek

Seeking a new pair of eyes
Ones that see past the rocks in disguise
Dressing up as diamonds, I'm in a relationship
With validationship

There's a real sense of misfit
Among the bearded people
I want to rip their hair off
Remind them that we're equal
But then I think
About the link
Between the bearded men and me
I'm on the brink
