

Smile Pretty Girl

Daisy The Great

I'm laying on the couch
Taking pictures of myself
I'm not that pretty
But I'm not bad
I'm breathing in disguise
I don't wanna go outside
I love the city
I'm just so sad

But I hope that it's only passing by
Not settled in my body and my mind
Some people say that all you need is time
But what if I'm still waiting when I die

Smile pretty girl (Is this how you want to be?)
Smile pretty girl (Is this how you want to be?)
You're on camera (Remember?)
Smile pretty girl, for the camera (Is this how you wanna be for the camera?)

I love my little home
But I'm stuck inside my phone
'Cause I'm not ready
To get up yet
And I've been letting time
Just walk right by my eyes
I should know better
That's what I get

But I hope that it's only passing by
Not settled in my body and my mind
Some people say that all you need is time
But what if I'm still waiting when I die

Smile pretty girl (Is this how you want to be?)
Smile pretty girl (Is this how you want to be?)
You're on camera (Remember?)

Where do you go
When you're really all alone?
Where do you do
To find something to laugh about?
Something to laugh about

Smile pretty girl
Smile pretty girl
Smile pretty girl, for the camera
Smile pretty girl
Smile pretty girl
Smile pretty girl, for the camera

Is this how you wanna be remembered?
