today I've tried to live
one more foolish dream
don't you see my soul's inner seas?
can you feel the blame that now is unveiled?
as pain sweetly embraces my earthly hell It's always sad when our words don't express our true believes failing what our eyes have to say
don't you see my soul's inner seas?
can you feel the blame that now is unveiled?
as pain slowly embraces my earthly hell.
