

Horses

Dala

I am the boy who won't let go
I live in my head and I don't look like my photos
And I hate the sound of the world outside
'Cause everybody coming here, can't wait to say goodbye
I followed your car to my childhood home
And I looked for the key heading under the stove
I still hear the sound in my fathers voice
When he lifts me up like I'm a little boy

But I saw horses from my window,
They were watching all the cars go.
And they don't care that I am broken,
close my eyes and run beside them.

And i'm allready free (2x)
So don't look for me here
'Cause I run in my dreams.

I am the girl who wont let go
And I live in my house, and I don't like my photos
And I hate the sound of the world outside
And I still haven't found my place to hide.

But I saw horses from my window,
They were watching all the cars go.
And they don't care that I am broken,
close my eyes and run beside them.

I saw horses from my window,
They were watching all the cars go.
And they don't care that I am broken,
close my eyes and run beside them.

Through the valleys and the pastures,
and I know you'll never find me.
'Cause I'm allready free.
And I'm allready free
So don't look for me here.
Don't look for me here.
'Cause I run in my dreams.
In my dreams.
