

List of Reasons

Dale Watson

I got a list of reasons I look at every day
And it's given me the courage to keep on walking away
When I think I'm gonna backslide and get hurt all over again
I got a list of reasons why you're never gonna win
If they open and close so many a time
It's about to fall apart
It's tattered and torn like the back of my mind
Crumbling like my heart
I got a list of reasons I carry everywhere
And it's helping to remind me why I shouldn't care
When I think I'm getting weaker, I read it over and over again
I got a list of reasons why you're never gonna win
If they open and close so many a time
It's about to fall apart
It's tattered and torn like the back of my mind
Crumbling like my heart
I got a list of reasons I look at every day
And it's given me the courage to keep on walking away
When I think I'm gonna backslide and get hurt all over again
I got a list of reasons why you're never gonna win
I got a list of reasons why you're never gonna win
