Sittin', sittin' and I'm thinkin' about you
Wishin', wishin' you were thinkin' about me too
Wonderin', wonderin' just a what you're gonna do

You are the apple of the eye
'Til some other guy came into town
I thought you hung the moon
Until I found that you had let me down

Wonderin', wonderin' just a what you're gonna do

'Til some other guy came into town
I thought you hung the moon
Until I found that you had let me down
