

Back Home

Dame D.O.L.L.A.

They just see the diamonds in the crowns, they don't see the thorns
Gotta keep this shit together, smilin' through the storm
Watch ya circle, they will have the halo and the horns
Everytime you winnin', another hater born
Got me sleepin' past noon 'cause I hate the mornin'
Another way of sayin' losin' you is torment
And if I had to choose, I'd trade you for this fuckin' fortune
I wish heartbreak came with a warning

But I miss you every day, I-
And I miss you, I pray I can't
And whatever I say, I won't
Get you back home, uh
And I miss you every day, but I can't
And I need you every day, but I can't
Bring you back home

RIP Free
RIP Chef B
RIP Lil Sean
RIP Scoob
I miss y'all niggas, man (Oh, woah, oh, oh, oh, oh)
This for all my people that lost somebody
Keep Cartier shades to keep from cryin'
I'm feelin' great, I'm good at lyin'
Lisin' legends like the world is dyin'
You was a demon but I know you flyin'

Tryna keep a clean heart, so I'll see you later
They tell me I'm the GOAT, but you was really greater
Had to swallow losin' you without a fuckin' chaser
Tell God I need a favor

They just see the diamonds in the crowns, they don't see the thorns
Gotta keep this shit together, smilin' through the storm
Watch ya circle, they will have the halo and the horns
Everytime you winnin', another hater born
Got me sleepin' past noon 'cause I hate the mornin'
Another way of sayin' losin' you is torment
And if I had to choose, I'd trade you for this fuckin' fortune
I wish heartbreak came with a warning

But I miss you every day, I-
And I miss you, I pray I can't
And whatever I say, I won't
Get you back home, uh
And I miss you every day, but I can't
And I need you every day, but I can't (Oh, woah, oh, oh, oh, oh)
Bring you back home
