

Shot Clock

Dame D.O.L.L.A.

You hear the crowd yell your name
It's your time, bro (It's your time)
Man of the people, what they in line for (What they in line for)
Main attraction, remember when I was sideshow (Sideshow)
And waitin' for something to go viral (Ha)
I tried to tell 'em it was written (Written)
I tried to tell 'em I was different (Different)
I tried to tell 'em I was itchin' (Itchin')
I tried to tell 'em I'm what's missin' (Ay)

I always knew I was the guy, I never second guessed it (Never)
The stuff I'm blessed with ain't the same as what the next get
That drive and that hunger runnin' deeper than the rest is (Ha)
And everything I do, I must perfect it, I be restless
And I ain't ever tried to be another guy
Disrespect the caterpillar, rave about the butterfly
What if I never made the league or fell into this cheese (They say)
They say "Dame, would we know your name?"
I tell 'em "yes, indeed," knew that I was built for the top
That's the cocky me, that's what they all say
A lame full of monotony
Been out here raisin' eyebrows, I know they rock with me
They wanted it, I had to have it, ain't no stoppin' me

Lotta fakers in the land of the strong, they won't survive (Nah)
They ain't really 'bout it, I can see it in their eyes (Yeah)
Fakers in the land of the strong, they won't survive
They ain't really 'bout it, I can see it in their eyes
No surprise, look

You hear the crowd yell your name
It's your time, bro (It's your time)
Man of the people, what they in line for (What they in line for)
Main attraction, remember when I was sideshow (Sideshow)
And waitin' for something to go viral (Ha)
I tried to tell 'em it was written (Written)
I tried to tell 'em I was different (Different)
I tried to tell 'em I was itchin' (Itchin')
I tried to tell 'em I'm what's missin' (Ay, uh)

Use to watch the dynamic duo at Arizona (Bibby)
And tell myself I'ma follow when I get my diploma (My)
Sleepin' on me, I knew one day they'd come out that coma (I knew it)
And my time was comin' sooner than Oklahoma (Soon)
Kids was shinin' for the moment (Moment)
But watchin' from the bottom, I could tell they wouldn't own it
They build a love with hype and claim 'em as the one that's chosen
I come with something extra and I knew they couldn't clone it
That neighborhood swag (Swag), church boy character (Uh)
Stump him by this Ghost, up and at him like a predator
Opinions never register, mind of his own
I told 'em sit back and watch my rise to the throne

Fakers in the land of the strong, they won't survive
They ain't really 'bout it, I can see it in their eyes
Fakers in the land of the strong, they won't survive
They ain't really 'bout it, I can see it in their eyes

No surpririse

Prepped for any kind of given situations
I play it in my mind, workin' with simulations (That's right)
I love that mental challenge, it's purely just stimulation (Ok)
I never change my moves, just some subtle renovations (Real subtle)
You see, that blood represent what's inside it and could make a man
The sweat sybolizes grindin' next to cute kuting klans (Go get it)
The tears reserve before the suffer because we understand
They in they comfort zone, couldn't see me in man-to-man
Told 'em all to watch how I'm on the clock with no watchout (Watch)
Shinin' with all the watts out so they can call me a spot out (Mine)
Got my brothers with me, they lookin' up when it flocks out
Mind be runnin' so fast, sometimes I let my thoughts out

Them false prophets just lookin' to stay true
Never puttin' in work and they think we gon' praise you
Livin' life without a limit, it's sicknin' how pride flew
So I'm stackin' up these bills, all my life I done paid dues, go (I did)
