

Wonderland

Dame D.O.L.L.A.

I wonder, I wonder
I wonder, I wonder
I wonder who gon' really ride
Who I stand beside
I wonder, I wonder
I wonder, I wonder

When you the leader of the people they gon' always look to you
Carry praise along with criticism know that you the truth
Be the target when the darts fly, the cup with all the juice
And don't do onto others as the others do to you
Recognize that to whom much is given, much's expected
Some gon' say you never helped because they feel neglected
Cause they jealous bout where they at and what you was blessed with

And the problems steady stacking, life's a game of Tetris
So many friends come and go but real ones gon' remain
Cause the kind of love you need only real ones can sustain
Media clouds your mind, family keep you sane
Not til you drown your sorrows and let's go make it rain
I'm learning the balance of keeping it fly
Who look in my eye?
Who really ride?
Who really baggage?
Who ease on my mind?
Who on the grind?
Who getting better?
Who counting up my cheddar?
Who thankful for my gestures?
Who here just for the pleasure, huh?

I wonder, I wonder
Who gon' really ride
I wonder who I stand beside
I wonder, I wonder
I wonder who here for the plug
I wonder who here for the love, huh

I wonder, I wonder, I wonder
I wonder, I wonder, I wonder
I wonder, I wonder, I wonder
I wonder, I wonder, I wonder
