

Dreamer

Dami Im

I wanna stop smilin' on my Instagram
I'll say what I want to 'cause I can
Sick of feelin' like a cute little bird stuck in a cage on display
With only one song to sing every night and day

I'm not a puppet who moves with your hand
I'm not that woman who begs for command
I'll never settle for what's second best
I know what I want, I know who I am

I'm one of those people with too many questions
Is there meaning in my endless pursuit or is it just an addiction
I'm searching for ways to describe the rivers of thoughts in my mind
Not even a book full of words could say what's inside

I'm not that stupid, don't need your advice
And I have a vision and I know the price
If I had to battle I'd fight to the end
I know what I want, I know who I am

I'm a dreamer
A believer
I know what I want
I know who I am, yeah, yeah
I'm a dreamer
A believer
Nobody tells me
Nobody can, oh

I pray that I could sing forever
The songs from deep within my heart
Gotta place your trust in me
Let's do this together
I know what I want, I know who I am
Oh, oh-oh-oh

I'm a dreamer
A believer
I know what I want
I know who I am, yeah, yeah
I'm a dreamer
A believer
Nobody tells me
Nobody can, oh

I'm a dreamer
A believer
I know what I want
I know who I am, ooh
I'm a dreamer
A believer
I know what I want
I know who I am
