

In Between

Dami Im

(Oh, oh, oh, oh-oh)
(Life is just the in between)

Born in 1926
Found somebody and had three kids
Blood, sweat and tears, and affairs
And each night finish with a prayer
Funny, it ends just like it all starts
Hospital wings and graveyards
Babies get born, and people leave
But I struggle with the in between

I let it pull me down deep
Heavy eyelids from nights I can't sleep
So, what does it all mean?

What if this is a moment we'll always replay
And, one day, we'll hold onto the memories we made?
All the pain, all the years
Every tear a lesson I need
No regrets, standing here
Done with second-guessing
Life is just the in between

Oh, oh, oh, oh-oh
Life is just the in between
Oh, oh, oh, oh-oh
Life is just the in between

Born in 1999
Just a little kid tryna dance all night
Looking for somewhere to belong
I don't know where it all went so wrong
Stuck in the past so I never see
So many good things in front of me
I keep on waiting for release
Now I'm wondering when that'll be

I let it pull me down deep
Heavy eyelids from nights I can't sleep
So, what does it all mean?

What if this is a moment we'll always replay
And, one day, we'll hold onto the memories we made?
All the pain, all the years
Every tear a lesson I need
No regrets, standing here
Done with second-guessing
Life is just the in between

Oh, oh, oh, oh-oh (Ohh)
Life is just the in between (Life is the in between, yeah)
Oh, oh, oh, oh-oh
Life is just the in between (We'll all be in between, in between)
(Oh, oh, oh, oh-oh)
(Life is just the in between) Ooh, we'll all be in between (Oh, oh, oh, oh-oh, in between, life is-)

(Life is just the in between)

Funny, it ends just like it all starts
Hospital wings and graveyards
Babies get born, and people leave
But I struggle with the in between
