Promised Land I picture Porsches Basquiat Portraits Pinky Rings realistic princesses Heiresses bunch a Kings and Queens Plus I picture fortunes for kids out in Port-Au-Prince Powerless they not allowed to fit But not about to slip Vision Promised Land with fashion like Madison Ave Manhattan Saks 5th Ave and Rodeo Relaxing popping labels Promise Land no fables This where the truth's told Use them two holes Above your nose To see the proof yo! Imagine a contraption that could take us back when The world was run by black men Back to the future Anything can happen If these are the last days And 100-food waves come crashing down I get some hash and pounds Pass around the bud then watch the flood Can't stop apocalypse My synopsis is catastrophic If satellites is causing earthquakes Will we survive it
