

Tangerine

Damiano David

Caught in a dream
With each one of you I've almost loved
Staring at me
Looking lonely wearing next to nothing
Try all your tricks
That used to make me fall
Send all your pics
But I won't feel nothing at all

I'm sorry
You gave me sugar, but she gave me honey
You got me high, but she made me a junky
I know these things can be touchy
Trust me
If I could shed a tear for all of you here
An ocean I would cry
You were a good time
She's the rest of my life

And I'm stuck in between things I've never seen
Like the love that you tried throwing back at me
It gets harder to leave when you're all that I need
If you bleed, then I bleed, eternally
I know that it's hard to love me when I fall apart
Keep me in your arms
But know you're not the only one

Sorry
You gave me sugar, but she gave me honey
You got me high, but she made me a junky
I know these things can be touchy
Trust me
If I could shed a tear for all of you here
An ocean I would cry
You were a good time
She's the rest of my life

I'm sorry
You gave me sugar, but she gave me honey
You got me high, but she made me a junky
I know these things can be touchy
Trust me
If I could shed a tear for all of you here
An ocean I would cry
You were a good time
She's the rest of my life
