

An ice cream and a cigar
Paid televisions glow

Monday morning vampire
Followed in the strange times
The moon is a silver ball
Floating past [?]
Riots at the radio station
They don't play for the common man
Doing his best to swim
Troubled hands waved at passersby
Shake your mouth like you know these times
Air flows up in the building
Destination top of the stairs
Managed to get my ass down
Feeling like I've gone too far

Positively nowhere Sam
Generation with no hand
Here's an anthem for the one you love
Funeral cars to the shopping malls
Punching out a hole in the zero
Putting up my feet on a chair
Falling asleep on the ambulance scenes
Everyone against the wall
I make my appearance
It's a midnight movie
Knocking over Goliath
Taking David hostage

An ice cream and a cigar
Gasoline in a bag
I told myself a long time ago
Never should you get involved
