

Random Fearless

Damien Jurado

Random Fearless
Took a walk to the grocery store
Catching the light
As it went through the cracks of the ceiling

Cut yourself
You don't mind that you're bleeding
Take away
All the pain you are feeling

Don't worry
It's a long
Long way back

Random Fearless
Born in a storm

From the rumors mill

Ain't it gas to see all the jokers believe it?

Cut yourself
You don't mind that you're singing
Hit rewind
So we don't miss when you're dying

Don't worry
It's a long
Long way back

Random Fearless
Changed his name to forget himself
