

Sandra

Damien Jurado

April awoke and went
We had the darkest spring
Don't get up just yet
For I am still changing my mind

Not that you deserve to know
My plans or where I'm going
I'll be gone before you notice
The lights have all but changed

Sandy, I don't recall
Them being taller than you
Don't grow up too fast
A life that is yours is one that is best

Not that they deserve to know
Your plans or where you're going to
You'll be gone before the morning
Your life has all but changed
