

Take Your Time

Damien Jurado

Don't be in such a hurry
Don't be what they thought
You're a train at the station that doesn't stop

You're strong in your silence
You are louder than light
Don't hold on to anger that isn't yours

Just Take Your Time
And I'll take mine
And take your time

Don't make yourself worry
Hold on to what's yours
Be still and take notice of the ones you love

With the moon in your pocket
The Universe at your command
With every window open, you'll understand

Just look up about you
See what you have
Look up about you and take your time
