

To Those Who Will Burn...

Damien Jurado

If you were to live
Among the living and the dead
Would you honestly say
You would want no part of this

Fire
Fire

If you were to sleep
Among the living and the dead
Could you honestly say
You would never dream of this

Fire
Fire
Fire
Fire

You will tear down
And I will build up
You will tear down, I will build up
You will tear down
And I will build up
You will tear down, I will build up
