

Forgive, Forget

Damien Leith

A man who would be king
A man who thought he ruled the world
And he brushes off his skin
He cries to sleep cos he knows
With the back of his skull
Then ago (??)

If tonight is a night of goodbyes
Can we forget about
All the pain, all the tears, all the lies
To break up through it (??)
When all comes down to this
Can we just not forgive, forget

My hero thought you're gone (??)
Cos everything you got, you lost
Now your shadow walks away
Alone to face the truth
Alone to face the day

If tonight is a night of goodbyes
Can we forget about
All the pain, all the tears, all the lies
To break up through it (??)
When all comes down to this
Can we just not forgive, forget

It's all over, nothing's left I know
Whoa
Whoa

If tonight is a night of goodbyes
Can we forget about
All the pain, all the tears, all the lies
To break up through it (??)
When all comes down to this
Can we just not forgive, forget

A last goodbye
