

Stay

Damien Leith

Is anyone out there
All the faces beyond the dark
Cos the light that we used to know
Like the tears I cannot show
In this place seem all alone
Years wondering what to do
Spend so much of it doing nothing
Now lying here on my back
I trade the space for just one second
All the world I never know

And so, what's the use in crying out
If someone's waiting on the outside
Hoping for a sign
Then you could stay

Don't go away
Stay
Don't go away
What happened to yesterday
All the simple things seem to lose away
Now I'm wondering what I forgot
Like the words I should have said
To the ones who's seen it all

So, what's the use in crying out
If someone's waiting on the outside
Hoping for a sign
Then you could stay
Don't go away
Stay
Don't go away
Don't go away
Ooh
Don't go away
