Keep It Hid

Dan Auerbach

Lock the door and close the blinds They're coming for me girl and I ain't got time If they ask you, darlin', oh about what I did Baby you gotta keep it hid I'm heading south, and I can't say where But I'll phone you baby soon as I get there They're not gonna seal my coffin lid' Cause you're gonna keep it hid Well Big Sue knew but she don't no more If you know what I mean They'll never find what they're looking for' Cause you're my tight-lipped queen I'll buy you a dress, a nice handmade piece And send your Mom on a vacation to Greece If you're an auction, oh I'm the highest bid Oh baby, 'cause you're gonna keep it hid
