

Whispered Words

Dan Auerbach

I hear words, pretty lies like the ones they tell you 'fore you die Whispered words, soft and low push me anywhere she wants to go

I hear words in my head
Each and everything she ever said
Every sign, every line tricked me into falling one more time

If you need me you're here
If you don't, you're no where near
I should have quit a long time ago

I hear words, in my sleep
Promises you made but never keep
Even in my dreams
I try to fight but i don't ever win

If you need you're here
If you don't you;re nowhere near
I should have quite a long time before
