

Alia

Dan Bern

Just when we got comfortable
Alia went to India
This time I was not the one that run out
When things got good

Alia
Alia
I'll remember you
Will you remember me?

It was always me the one
That left before the setting sun
Now you're gone half way around the world
I don't think turnabout is fair play

Alia
Alia
I remember you
Do you remember me?

Now I know what it's like
When they're just beyond your reach
You did not look back when we said farewell
I wanted to run to you so much

I've been through this country through and through
But I've never been to India
I guess that's maybe why you had to run off
To your old India

Alia
Alia
I'll remember you
Will you remember me?
