

Tongue-Tied

Dan Bern

Now that everything has been sold
This song is hard
To love, to love, to love

Trust has been a little frazzled
With a song that might
Be sold in 20 years to sell beer

But don't we all love to sing a song together
And don't we all just love to sing along

Sorry if I'm a little tongue-tied
But it's been so long
Since I talked to anyone

Sorry if my body is a furnace
But it's been so long
Since I touched anyone

Sorry if my clouds are in the mirror
But in the window it's clear
It's clear, I'm clear
As everyone

Sorry if my song's a little shy
But it's been so long
Since I sung to anyone

But don't we all love to sing a song together
And don't we all just love to sing along

Now that everything has been sold
This song is hard
To love, to love, to love
