

Life Slash Dreams

Dan Black

Into my car
Comes the light of the setting sun
That lonely star
And the sound of the traffic hum

How often am I here
Where I just disappear?
Maybe I'll wash away
Am I awake or am I asleep?

Life is life
Dreams are dreams
And I'm floating
Somewhere in between

Life is life
Dreams are dreams
And I'm floating
Somewhere in between
Somewhere in between
Somewhere in between

She mouths along
To some stupid hum-drum song
And it feels so good
How do things go wrong?

Daffodils in guns
Pointed at your sons
All you do is talk away
Am I awake or am I asleep?

Life is life
Dreams are dreams
And I'm floating
Somewhere in between

Life is life
Dreams are dreams
And I'm floating
Somewhere in between
Somewhere in between
Somewhere in between
Somewhere in between

In bars and cafes
On lonely stations
All talking revolts
I guess I have no choice
I need to find your voice
Or I'll just dissolve

Life is life
Dreams are dreams
And I'm floating
Somewhere in between

Life is life
Dreams are dreams
And I'm floating
Somewhere in between
Somewhere in between
Somewhere in between
