

So

Dan Black

Oh I miss you
More than I show
Something got broken
But how, I don't know
My heart's not broke, it's stone

Ooooooooooh
Ooooooooooh

I must let go
I must let go
I must let go
I must let go

I look out the window
Where are you now?
Drunk on a tour bus
Laughing out loud
And the Paris rain pours down

Ooooooooooh
Ooooooooooh

I must let go
I must let go
I must let go
I must let go

We are our own devils
We make our own hell
Once it was voodoo
But now there's no spell
Man I hope your do went well

Ooooooooooh
Ooooooooooh

I must let go
I must let go
