

After All

Dan Bremnes

Many days I have seen
And many places I've been
Many paths my feet have worn me down
Many fires I have lit
And many faces I met
All the while my heart is before Your eyes

And after all
You lead this journey
Through the storm You lead me on
You lead me on

Many fights I have fought
Many battles I've lost
Many lessons brought me unto my knees
Many times I have won
Many victories belong to us
And all the while your sovereigns, it leads me on

And after all
You lead this journey
Through the storm You lead me on
You lead me on

Well I can see the ground
Beneath my feet, each led by You
And I believe the path is ever leading onward

And after all
You lead this journey
Through the storm you lead me on
You lead me on

And after all
You lead this journey
Through the storm you lead me on
You lead me on
