

Beautiful

Dan Bremnes

Lord I want everything
Everything You've got for me
I won't be satisfied until I find everything You are

Lord You know You've opened my eyes
Shown me things that I can't see on my own
You call me justified
Free to find everything You are Everything You are

And You
Changed me from what I used to be
Opened my eyes, now I can see
You're making this life so beautiful
So beautiful

Lord I give You everything
Anything You want from me
I lay it at Your feet

Yeah, I'm after Your heart
You've stolen mine
'Cause You came along and You gave up Your life
Now I can be, oh, I can be with You
Oh I can dance with You

And You
Changed me from what I used to be
Opened my eyes, now I can see
You're making this life so beautiful
So beautiful

And You
Changed me from what I used to be
Opened my eyes, now I can see
You're making this life so beautiful
And You
Making me who I'm called to be
Rescued my heart, now I am free
Making this life so beautiful
So beautiful

Yeah it's only You that can make this life so beautiful
So beautiful
