

Faith Is

Dan Bremnes

I say I'm waiting on You
Maybe You're waiting on me
I'm asking for You to move
But I'm not moving my feet
I've searched your heart for a sign
I wanna fight in the sky
So I keep waiting on You
And You keep waiting on me

Well faith is fearless, deeper than doubt
And it looks straight through what I can't figure out
It doesn't hesitate
Just step out on the waves
Head first, reckless
That's what faith is

I can't keep dreaming all day
And asking for guarantees
I'll dream my whole life away
Like it's all out of my reach
Maybe the mountain is me
And it's just time to believe
Tell every promise is real no matter what I feel

Faith is fearless, deeper than doubt
And it looks straight through what I can't figure out
It doesn't hesitate
Just step out on the waves
Head first, reckless
That's what faith is

Into the unseen
God, You can take me
Into the place where my world and Your's meet
Silence my doubting
Let all I am be
Found in the place where my world and Your's meet

I know faith is fearless, deeper than doubt
No, it doesn't hesitate
Just step out on the waves
Head first, reckless
That's what faith is

It doesn't hesitate
Head first, reckless
That's what faith is
