

Going Together

Dan Bremnes

I remember when it hit me
You were 19, bright eyes, big dreams
I felt the blood rush to my heart
I knew that this could be the start of something
Like you see in movies
The making of our story
So I got down on my knee
And I told you honestly

Baby, I don't know where we're going
But we're going together

Oooh, oooh
Oooh, oooh

Fast forward 8 years later
We're on this wild adventure
Got a baby in the back seat
Moving to another country
We packed up every last thing
Turned the chapter in this story
Both of us scared to death
You took my hand and said

Baby, I don't know where we're going
But we're going together

Oooh, oooh
We're going together
Oooh, oooh
We're going together

Through the unknown
Until we get home
We will hold onto each other
'Cause this love we share
Is an answered prayer
And it's only getting better

I can see us when we're older
And moving a little slower
With a life full of memories
Yeah, we wouldn't change a thing
And it might not come easy
But the beauty is the mystery
Of where this road leads
You and me

Baby, I don't know where we're going
But we're going together

Oooh, oooh
We're going together
Oooh, oooh
We're going together (I remember when it hit me)
Oooh, oooh
We're going together (I remember when it hit me)

Oooh, oooh
We're going together
