

Heart On Fire

Dan Bremnes

Oh, my soul
It longs, it hopes
For a love that grows, till it overflows
And like a train speeding down the track
I wanna chase Your heart like that
Yes, I do
Oh God, its' true that

Oh, Oh, Oh, Oh I wanna burn for You

Light me up, light me up, set my heart on fire
Let my life be a song like an angel choir
May my worship be endless
Untameably reckless for You, only You
Light me up, light me up, set my heart on fire
Set my heart on fire

Oh, my heart
My beating heart
Every single part needs all You are
'Cause Your's is the sweetest kind of love
Too sweet to dream it up
Yeah, I am moved
Oh God, it's true that

Oh, Oh, Oh, Oh, I wanna burn for You

Light me up, light me up, set my heart on fire
Let my life be a song like an angel choir
May my worship be endless
Untameably reckless for You, only You
Light me up, light me up, set my heart on fire
Set my heart on fire

Surround me, consume me, there's nothing to I want more
Than to be completely surrendered, devoted You
Yea, I'm all yours
You're all I'm living for

Oh light me up, light me up, set my heart on fire
Let my life be a song like an angel choir
May my worship be endless
Untameably reckless for You, only You
Light me up, light me up, set my heart on fire
Set my heart on fire
