

Never Wanna Lose

Dan Bremnes

I'm looking for the core of Your heart
I'm searching now to find You in every part
I'm reaching past all that I am
I'll lose it all to find You again

Draw me to where You are
Reveal to me Your heart

I never wanna lose Your heart
I'm looking for the place You are
I never wanna let You go

To know You in the way that You are
To find You in the place you unveil Your thoughts
I'll make it as the aim of my soul
To find You Lord I'll never let go

Draw me to where You are
Reveal to me Your heart

I never wanna lose Your heart
I'm looking for the place You are
I never wanna let You go
I never wanna lose Your heart
I'm looking for the place You are
I never wanna let
I never wanna let You go

I never wanna lose Your heart
I'm looking for the place You are
I never wanna let You go

I never wanna lose Your heart
I'm looking for the place You are
I never wanna let You go
