

Scars

Dan Bremnes

If you feel like a stereotype
When you're lost in the maze of this life
If you look in the mirror, wishing that the path
Was a little bit clearer
When your heart is beating fast
You find love, but the love just don't last
If you're lost and lonely
Hoping for a new start
Different kind of story

Don't be afraid to just stand up, get up
Dance to the fire, even though it might burn you
You can't love with half your heart
You can't grow without some scars
Don't be afraid to just give it all, take a fall
Never back down, even though it might hurt ya
You can't love with half your heart
You can't grow without some scars

Life's fast if you blink it's gone
You're gonna lose if you hold on too strong
You gotta let your guard down, little more
Open up heart, just let go
I know what you're thinking
You see the finish line
But you don't know where to start
But sometimes the first step
Is the hardest part

Don't be afraid to just stand up, get up
Dance to the fire, even though it might burn you
You can't love with half your heart
You can't grow without some scars
Don't be afraid to just give it all, take a fall
Never back down, even though it might hurt ya
You can't love with half your heart
You can't grow without some scars

You don't have to be afraid no more
You can't love with half your heart
You can't love with half your heart
You don't have to be afraid no more
You can't love with half your heart
You can't grow without some scars
