

Speak To Me

Dan Bremnes

Well I'm on my knees
'Cause the news broke me
I can barely speak
So won't You speak to me right now
And I don't care how
In my darkest hour
Won't You speak

Just one whisper
Just one single word
It's the only thing I need right now
'Cause I can barely breath
So won't You speak to me

Well I'm in Your hands
And You understand
So if there's any way you can
Won't You speak to me tonight
'Cause I'm not alright
And I need the light
So won't You speak

Just one whisper
Just one single word
It's the only thing I need right now
'Cause I can barely breath
So won't You speak to me

I know sorrow lasts through the night
But your still small voice is like morning light
Yeah the ground will shake and I will pass through the fire
I will wait, wait
Won't You speak

Just one whisper
Just one single word
It's the only thing I need right now
'Cause I can barely breath
So won't You speak to me
