

Vast Expanse

Dan Bremnes

Emptiness is nothing
For those who give up something
For this chance, to dance, romance
You crack your head on nothing
It proves to make of something
For this chance, to take my quick advance

Oh what a feeling
Oh what a vast expanse
Between here and whatever

You thought that God was nothing
But you is who you're bluffing
For this chance, to dance, romance
Set Your eyes above
Take it in all this Love
For this chance, to break it all off and dance

Oh what a feeling
Oh what a vast expanse
Between here and whatever

Oh what a feeling
Oh what a vast expanse
Between here and whatever
