

Wherever I Go

Dan Bremnes

Well I sweat in the heat of the battle
And I fought through the dust and the shadows
Oh, You never left my side
Never left my side, no
And I stood at the top of the world
I swam through the depths of my soul
No matter what I find
No matter what I find, oh

Drought or famine
High and low

Wherever I go
Oh, You're gonna find me there
Wherever I go
Oh, You're right beside me there
In the rising flame
Even in the pouring rain
Even in the flood, I'm safe
Oh, oh, oh, oh
You go wherever I go

Wherever I go

You hold all the pieces together
You bring me strength in the desert
Oh, You defend my soul
You defend my soul
No height, no depth, no grave
Nothing on earth can keep you away
Oh, You're my only hope
You're my only hope

Life and death
This truth I know

Wherever I go
Oh, You're gonna find me there
Wherever I go
Oh, You're right beside me there
In the rising flame
Even in the pouring rain
Even in the flood, I'm safe
Oh, oh, oh, oh
You go wherever I go

Woah
You go wherever I go
Woah

Wherever I go
Oh, You're gonna find me there
Wherever I go
Oh, You're right beside me there
In the rising flame
Even in the pouring rain

Oh, oh, oh, oh
You go wherever I go

Wherever I go
Yeah, wherever I go (wherever I go)
Wherever I go
