

You Are

Dan Bremnes

Now I find myself longing for You more
You unveil my eyes and bring me deeper still
Your glory all around, and ringing is the sound of praise
I can barely breathe now

You are the Holy One, the Lord of all the earth
And You are the first and the final word
And You are the Lamb of God, the Father's only Son
And You came and bled for a fallen world

Through history You've shown You're sovereign over all
We are amazed by all You've done
One day we will stand and worship to no end
Singing Hallelujah, You are awesome God

You are the Holy One, the Lord of all the earth
And You are the first and the final word
And You are the Lamb of God, the Father's only Son
And You came and bled for a fallen world
You came and bled for a fallen world

You are the King of Love, the Ruler of my heart
You set the sun and the moon above
And You are the Risen One, the Lord Emmanuel
No one compares to all You are

You are the Holy One, the Lord of all the earth
And You are the first and the final word
And You are the Lamb of God, the Father's only Son
And You came and bled for a fallen world
A fallen world

Jesus, Jesus, Jesus
Lord of all
