

Azeroth Falling

Dan Bull

You feel something calling to you from afar
A whole world apart, but coming for your heart
You've somehow allowed it all to come apart
Became nameless strangers walking in the dark

Don't reignite the torch. I'd really like to talk
Do you mind? Do you realise I torture minds?
Divulge your mortal vice. You're mortified
There's more to find. Come on. I told you mine

It's your skill they spoke of in folklore and legends
So, bring it over, love. Go call your brethren
Now, let's get down to brass tacks, the fact of the matter
Xal'atath's packing a pathogen passing as passionate patter

Living her life on the edge of a knife
Is it any surprise her vibe's never a slice of life
Never as nice as pie
You'll never see eye-to-eye
But whisper in your ear
Then you'll be ride-or-die

Azeroth falling
Azeroth falling
Azeroth falling through you

Still a long way to midnight

Azeroth falling
Azeroth falling
Azeroth falling through you

"You can't be too prepared for this fight."

Turn over the hourglass
Another hour passed
Soon enough we can begin our task
Now, at last
Xal'atath's malice splashed
Panoramic paragraph
Span a vast map
Giving propaganda gravitas
Nonviolently violate you while I'm smiling
I've orchestrated all this play you like a violin

Melodically manipulative, pulling on your bow string
Pitch dark overhead, smothered by the crow's wings
The gloaming's foreboding
You're closed in
Supposing you don't know your own kin
I've broken the legs of a throne
Overthrown kings
They're only skin-covered bone
Look at those things

Azeroth falling
Azeroth falling

Azeroth falling through you

Still a long way to midnight

Azeroth falling
Azeroth falling
Azeroth falling through you

Tonight uproarious oiks
Unruly, bawdy and boisterous
In the morning you'll be falling like the walls of a fortress
Giving you cause to be cautious
Lest you be caught in her claws
Slaughtered, forscheming of stealing
That secret sauce of a sorceress

When it's us or you, can you trust your crew?
When it's us or you, can you trust your crew?

Azeroth falling
Azeroth falling
Azeroth falling through you

Still a long way to midnight

Azeroth falling
Azeroth falling
Azeroth falling through you

It's times like this that you see who your friends really are
Who you believe them to be
It's times like this that you see who your friends really are
Who you believe them to be

It's times like this that you see who your friends really are
Who you believe them to be
It's times like this that you see who your friends really are
Who you believe them to be
